

A WRITE-IN ADVENTURE FOR GROWING DISCIPLES

Identity Anchor Mission Workbook

Observe the passage. Answer the pressure. Practice the truth.

1 Corinthians 1:1-9 KJV

A family Bible adventure from Blogging4Adventure

Mission 1 - Verse Detective

Read 1 Corinthians 1:1-9 KJV. Use the passage itself - not guesses - to complete the investigation.

- ☐ Box every name or title for Jesus.
- ☐ Underline what God gives or does.
- ☐ Circle words that describe the believers.
- ☐ Star the sentence that tells you why God can be trusted.

What did God do first in this passage?

Which words are repeated? Why might that matter?

Detective rule: point to the verse before you build the answer.

Mission 2 - Build the Seven Anchors

Match each truth to its verse, then write one phrase from that verse as evidence.

TRUTH	VERSE	EVIDENCE PHRASE
Called
Sanctified in Christ
Given grace
Enriched by Him
Not behind in gifts
Confirmed to the end
Called into fellowship

Which anchor feels most surprising?

Mission 3 - Name the Pressure

A label can describe a moment, but it should not become your master. Name the pressure honestly. Then answer it with a truth grounded in the passage.

THE LABEL OR PRESSURE

Examples: I must impress everyone. One mistake defines me. Being left out means I do not matter.

WHAT I FEEL AND WHAT HAPPENED

Feelings are information, not enemies. Tell the truth without letting the feeling become the final authority.

THE PASSAGE TRUTH THAT ANSWERS

Choose one of the seven anchors and include the verse number.

Mission 4 - Guided Practice

For each situation, write an anchor truth and a faithful next step. A faithful step is honest, loving, responsible, and possible today.

A FRIEND EXCLUDES YOU

Anchor truth:

Faithful next step:

YOU MAKE A BIG MISTAKE

Anchor truth:

Faithful next step:

YOU RECEIVE PRAISE

Anchor truth:

Faithful next step:

YOU FEEL FORGOTTEN

Anchor truth:

Faithful next step:

Strong answers do two things: they stay faithful to the verse and they lead to a concrete response.

Mission 5 - My Identity Anchor

Write a short anchor statement in this pattern:

Because God is faithful and I belong to Jesus, today's label is not my lord. I can _____ faithfully.

My anchor statement

The verse that supports it

One person I can ask for help

My next faithful step

Mission 6 - Seven-Day Anchor Log

Practice once a day. Small, truthful repetition is the goal - not a perfect streak.

DAY	PRESSURE I NOTICED	ANCHOR + NEXT STEP	DONE

What changed after a week of returning to the passage?

Family Encouragement Cards

Write, cut, and share. Keep the blank side for a personal note. An encouragement should tell the truth and point toward Jesus, not promise an easy outcome.

GOD IS FAITHFUL

I noticed you _____.

1 Corinthians 1:9 reminds us

With love, _____

GRACE IS GIVEN

Today I want you to remember
_____.

A faithful next step could be
_____.

With love, _____

CALLED INTO FELLOWSHIP

You do not have to carry this alone. I can help by _____.

Let us pray about _____.

With love, _____

YOUR OWN ANCHOR

Verse: _____

Truth: _____

Encouragement: _____

With love, _____

Cut along the card edges with adult help.

Parent and Teacher Answer Guide

Mission 1: Look for God's actions: calling, giving grace, enriching, confirming, and bringing believers into fellowship with Jesus. Jesus Christ / Christ Jesus / Lord Jesus Christ appears repeatedly and remains the center.

Mission 2 answer key

Called	v. 2
Sanctified in Christ	v. 2
Given grace	v. 4
Enriched by Him	v. 5
Not behind in gifts	v. 7
Confirmed to the end	v. 8
Called into fellowship	v. 9

Coaching guided practice

Accept more than one anchor when the child can connect it honestly to the passage. Ask: 'Where do you see that?' and 'What makes the next step faithful?' Avoid rewarding a polished answer that ignores the verse or the real situation.

The goal is not identity-themed positivity. The goal is careful reading that leads to truthful, grace-shaped action.

Ariel's sign-off

Keep the passage open, make room for honest feelings, and celebrate every small return to God's faithful word.
