

Jesus—The Supreme King of Everything

By Alice Presswood

Introduction

Theme Overview: This activity set is designed to immerse participants in the majesty of Jesus as the Supreme King of everything. Rooted in Colossians 1:16-17, this set challenges participants to grasp the full scope of Christ's reign over creation, history, and eternity. Through deep reflection, engaging activities, and creative applications, participants will gain a richer understanding of what it means to submit to Jesus as King and to live as faithful citizens of His eternal Kingdom. The ultimate goal is to inspire greater love, obedience, and devotion to the One who reigns over all.

Key Scripture: Colossians 1:16-17: "For in him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things have been created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together."

Memory Quote: "Jesus is not just a King; He is the King of kings, ruling over all with love, justice, and grace."

1. Reflective Discussion Questions

Understanding Jesus' Kingship:

- What does it mean that Jesus is the "Supreme King of everything"? How does this truth influence your daily life?
- How do we see Jesus' rule in creation, history, and our personal experiences?
- Why do you think recognizing Jesus as King is crucial for living a life of faith?
- How does the knowledge that Jesus reigns over everything affect how we handle worry and fear?

The Impact of Jesus' Sovereignty:

- What areas of your life do you find difficult to fully surrender to Jesus' authority?
- How does knowing that Jesus is King bring comfort in times of uncertainty, chaos, or personal struggles?
- What are practical ways we can acknowledge Jesus' Kingship in our words, actions, and decisions?
- How does Jesus' kingship shape our identity as His followers?

Obedience to the King:

- What does true obedience to Jesus look like? How is it different from just acknowledging Him as King?
- What are some challenges to submitting fully to Christ's authority?
- How can we demonstrate our allegiance to Jesus in our relationships, work, and daily routines?
- What does it mean to advance the Kingdom of God in our daily lives?

2. Interactive Activities

Activity 1: "Crown Him King" Worship and Commitment Journal

Objective: Encourage participants to reflect on the Kingship of Jesus and make a personal commitment to submit to His rule in all areas of their lives.

Materials Needed:

- Journals or notebooks
- Pens or pencils
- Small paper crowns
- Bible verses on Jesus' authority (e.g., Philippians 2:9-11, Revelation 19:16, Daniel 7:13-14)

Instructions:

1. Invite participants to reflect on areas in their lives where they struggle to let Jesus reign fully.
2. Ask them to write a personal letter to Jesus, acknowledging His supreme authority and expressing a desire to surrender specific areas to Him.
3. On a small paper crown, have participants write one word representing an area they want to give fully to Jesus (e.g., "anxiety," "pride," "future," "relationships").
4. As a group, lay the crowns at the foot of a cross or place them in a special area as a symbolic act of surrender.
5. Encourage ongoing journaling to track spiritual growth in surrendering to Christ's Kingship.

Reflection:

- How does surrendering to Jesus bring freedom rather than restriction?
- What practical steps can you take to remind yourself daily that Jesus reigns over your life?
- How does worship help reinforce the reality of Jesus' Kingship in our hearts?

Activity 2: "Kingdom Perspective" Treasure Hunt

Objective: Illustrate how seeking Jesus and His Kingdom changes the way we view life and decision-making.

Materials Needed:

- Treasure hunt clues or scripture cards
- Small prizes representing "kingdom treasures" (e.g., a crown, a small gift labeled "God's peace")
- A treasure chest or decorated box

Instructions:

1. Set up a treasure hunt around the room or outdoor space, with each clue leading to another.
2. Each clue should contain a Bible verse about Jesus' Kingship (e.g., Matthew 6:33, John 18:36, Psalm 103:19).
3. The final treasure should be a symbol representing the greatest treasure—Jesus Himself.
4. Gather the group and discuss how seeking God's Kingdom changes our priorities.

Reflection:

- How is seeking Jesus different from seeking worldly success or riches?
- What are "treasures" of God's Kingdom that we often overlook?
- How can we shift our focus from temporary goals to eternal priorities?

Activity 3: "The King's Decree" Creative Expression Project

Objective: Encourage participants to creatively express what it means to live under Jesus' rule.

Materials Needed:

- Large sheets of paper or a whiteboard
- Markers, crayons, or paints
- Bible verses about Jesus' Kingdom (e.g., Luke 4:43, Psalm 145:13, Revelation 11:15)

Instructions:

1. Ask participants to imagine they are royal messengers delivering a decree from King Jesus.
2. Have each person create a "King's Decree" poster, illustrating what Jesus' Kingdom is like and how His followers should live.
3. Display the decrees around the room and allow participants to explain their creations.

Reflection:

- What key aspects of Jesus' rule did you highlight in your decree?
- How does understanding Jesus as King influence how we share His message with others?
- What does it mean to represent Jesus' Kingdom in everyday life?

5. Practical Applications for Daily Life

Daily Submission to Jesus:

- Start each morning with a simple prayer: "Jesus, I give You control of my day. Reign in my heart and guide my steps."

Kingdom-Focused Decision Making:

- Before making major decisions, ask, "Does this align with Jesus' teachings and advance His Kingdom?"

Scripture Memorization:

- Memorize key verses about Jesus' authority, such as Revelation 17:14 and Philippians 2:9-11.

Serving Others as Kingdom Citizens:

- Look for ways to serve others as Jesus did—through kindness, generosity, and justice.

Sharing the Gospel:

- Challenge participants to share what they learned about Jesus' Kingship with at least one person this week.
