Open the Capital Gate

MISSION 1 / CAPITAL GATE

Start every sentence with a capital letter. Names of people and the word I need capitals, too.

MIXED-UP MESSAGE

alice and i read.

RESTORED

Alice and I read.

- 1 Alice is a name and begins this sentence. Use A.
- 2 I is always a capital when it means yourself.
- 3 Keep the other words in lowercase. Keep the period.

SS04 / YOUR TURN

Rewrite: ariel has a map.

RESCUE TIP

Ariel says: A capital starts the message. A name keeps its capital wherever it goes.

Give each message a start

MISSION 1 / CAPITAL GATE

Rewrite each sentence. Fix the capital letters. Keep the ending mark.

SS05the sun is up.

Handwriting practice lines for sentence SS05.

SS06i see a red book.

Handwriting practice lines for sentence SS06.

SS07We sit with alice.

Handwriting practice lines for sentence SS07.

RESCUE TIP

Point to the first word. Then look for a name or the word I. Other words stay lowercase.

Unlock the Question Room

MISSION 3 / LISTENING SHELVES

An asking sentence asks for an answer. Use a question mark at the end.

MIXED-UP MESSAGE

Can the cat hop

RESTORED

Can the cat hop?

- 1 Listen: this sentence asks something.
- 2 Say an answer: Yes, it can.
- 3 Use a capital at the start and a question mark at the end.

SS25 / YOUR TURN

Copy and add the asking mark: Is the bag red

RESCUE TIP

Ariel says: Asking words help, but listen to the whole message. Does it ask for an answer?

The pocket sentence checker

MISSION 4 / STORYTELLER LOFT

Keep this page beside your writing. Point to each check as you read your sentence aloud.

ACAPITAL

Capitalize the first word, names of people and I.

|SPACE

Leave a clear space between words.

TELL

A calm telling sentence ends with a period.

?ASK

An asking sentence ends with a question mark.

!EXCITEMENT

Strong excitement can end with an exclamation point.

RESCUE TIP

Whole idea first: Tell or ask something that makes sense. Then check the writing details.
