KEEP THIS FIELD GUIDE

Three useful labels

Three labels unlock every branch of the adventure.

NAME ITTOPIC

Usually a word or short phrase: the art shelf.

EXPLAIN ITMAIN IDEA

A whole thought about the topic: The art shelf keeps supplies sorted.

PROVE ITDETAIL

A fact that helps explain the message: Brushes stand in a cup.

Worked example

The art shelf keeps supplies sorted. Brushes stand in a cup. Paper lies flat in a tray. Crayons stay in a small box.

WATCH ARIEL THINK

Topic: the art shelf. Main idea: The art shelf keeps supplies sorted. Details: the cup, tray, and box show how it keeps things sorted.

YOUR READING ROUTINE

1. Read all the sentences. 2. Name the topic. 3. Say the big message. 4. Point to two details that fit. The first sentence can help, but always check the whole text.

GROWN-UP FIELD NOTE

A topic names. A main idea explains.

MISSION 1 • TRY TOGETHER

One card, one topic

The rain-kit sign has slipped off its hook.

The rain kit

Our rain kit is ready by the door. It holds a folded raincoat. Boots stand beside the kit. A small umbrella hangs on a hook above it.

A1

Choose the best topic.

- ☐ A. Our rain kit
- ☐ B. All kinds of weather
- ☐ C. One umbrella

A2

Why is "one umbrella" too narrow?

PARENT PROMPT

Read each sentence with the chosen topic in mind. Ask: Does this sentence belong under that label?

ALICE'S READER TIP

Look for a name that fits every sentence.

MISSION 3 • TRY YOURSELF

Collect two clues

Connect the big idea to two different clues.

The work table

The work table is ready for a craft. A washable cover protects the top. Paper and pencils lie within reach. A small bin holds scraps.

C4 Write the main idea.

C5 Write one supporting detail.

C6 Write a different supporting detail.

CLUE-CHECK TIP

Use what the author actually wrote.

Cut or record IDs. Sort by meaning.

Your sample field guide

Five page excerpts and this sample-only guide.

This six-page sample contains full-product pages 1, 4, 6, 17 and 24 plus this answer guide. Retained page numbers are intentionally nonconsecutive. The full product has 30 unique pages in matching color and low-ink editions.

THE RAIN-KIT CLUES

A1: A, our rain kit. A2: One umbrella is too narrow: the card also describes a raincoat and boots.

THE WORK-TABLE CLUES

C4: The work table is ready for a craft. C5-C6: Any two different details: cover protects the top; paper and pencils within reach; bin holds scraps.

PLAY WITH THE 12 LOST LABELS

Choose three main-idea cards and add three matching details to each. G1 with G2/G3/G4: book care. G5 with G6/G7/G8: tidy craft desk. G9 with G10/G11/G12: helping visitors. Explain why each detail fits. Point to cards or record IDs, or ask an adult to cut them.
